Volume 79

C. 373
Rose High School
2004

The Log 2004 is dedicated to Mr. Peter Reilly.

After many years of educating students, Mr. Reilly retired from MHS in January of 2004, but he has left an indelible mark upon the school and the many students that he taught. Mr. Reilly was always among the most popular staff members. His unmistakable voice and his great sense of humor can never be forgotten, and his seemingly boundless knowledge is amazing. He always seemed to brighten our days and put a smile on our faces. Mr. Reilly has dedicated himself to us, and now the Class of 2004 would like to dedicate this book to him.

In September 2000, we set foot in MHS for the first time. As we wandered through the labyrinth of hallways and jumble of classrooms, many of us wondered if we would ever figure this place out.

Four short years later, we have gone above and beyond figuring it out. We have spent long hours at MHS, bettering ourselves and our school. The nervous group that entered as freshman has coalesced into an amazing, confident, tight-knit senior class.

Through creativity and hard work, we have thrived. Our prosperity has even earned us the nickname "Corporate America." We established the Annual Student-Faculty Basketball Game to show who really rules the school. We held the first ever Junior Prom aboard a ship in Boston Harbor. We pioneered the selling of slush and water at graduation. We dedicated an entire day to beautifying Melrose during Junior Clean-up Day. We even revived Powderpuff Football at MHS!

Through good news and bad news, we have bonded as a class. MHS is where we watched the horrors of 9/11/01 unfold, and MHS is where we find a sense of security and community when the nation and world are torn by war.

Through thick and thin, we have persevered and succeeded. Now, as we bid goodbye to MHS, we leave behind not just empty, windowless, hexagonal rooms, but a host of memories. Each and every one of us is an integral part of this diverse and special class. As we now go our separate ways, remember that we will be forever linked. We will always be the Class of 2004!

The story of our high school years has been one of hard work and fun, of disappointments and celebrations, and wins and losses, and of unforgettable memories.

With that, let our story unfold . . .

Advisors

How can four years have passed this quickly? It has been a wonderful experience working with you, the Class of 2004.

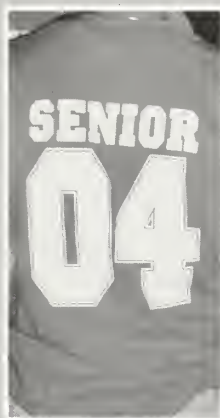

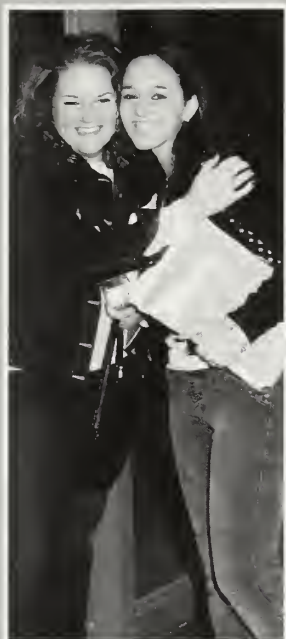

You are a class filled with humor, intelligence, diligence, integrity, and talent. It has been a pleasure and a joy to work with all of you. You have all grown so much as people since you first entered this school four years ago. In the fall of 2001, many of you entered Melrose High School as quiet, nervous freshman. Now you have become scholars, musicians, artists, athletes, leaders, and most importantly, wonderful young men and women. It has been amazing to watch you become the special people that every one of you are.

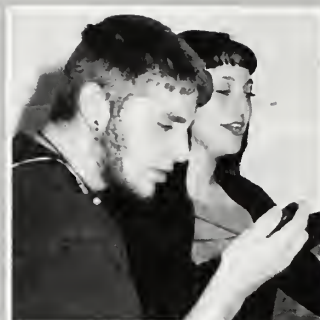

As a class, you have always been willing to do things differently, even if it was a frustration to some of you. You rallied together and had a blast when you had to take busses to your junior prom. You supported each other in the classroom and out of the classroom; through good times and bad times; and you always supported one another with honesty, integrity, and respect. We hope you keep these traits forever.

Saying goodbye to you all is bittersweet. You have brought both of us so much enjoyment and we will miss you dearly. You made us proud to call you "Our Corporate America." More importantly though, you have made us so happy with your achievements and future ambitions. Good luck always and congratulations. When you become famous actors, athletes, lead singers, writers, doctors, and TV hosts, please remember your two great class advisors when we ask you for box seats or back stage passes. Thank you for the memories Class of 2004. You are, quite simply, the best.

Very Sincerely,

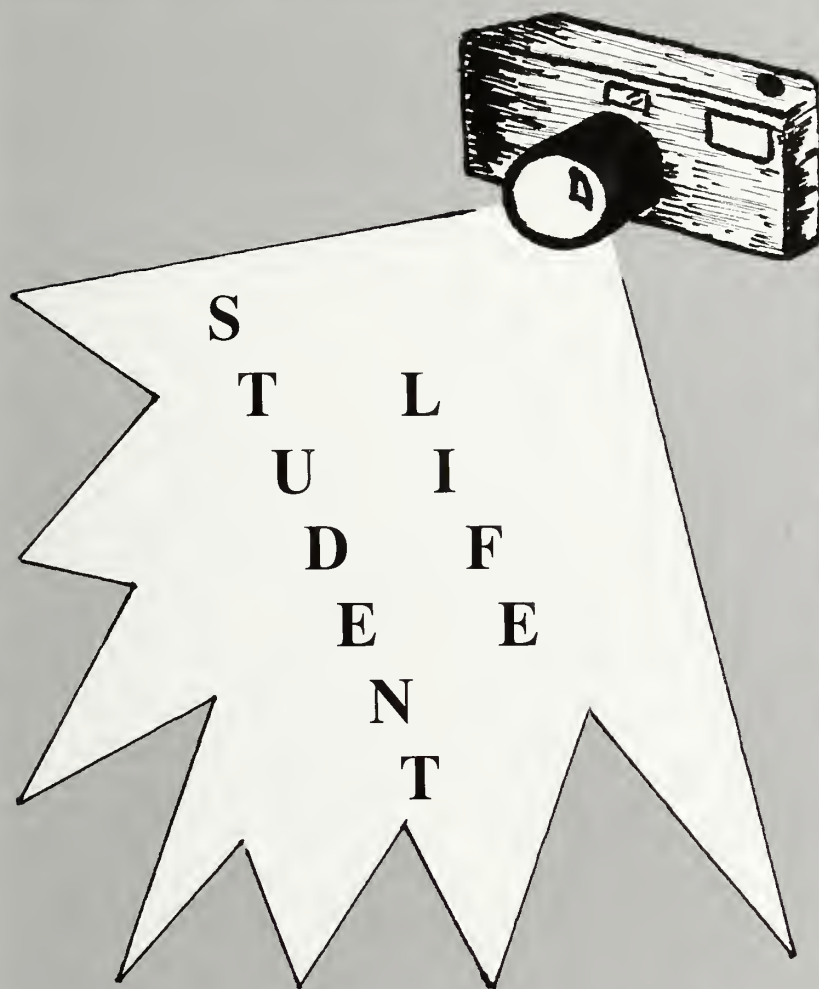

Ms. Moughty and Mr. Coughlin

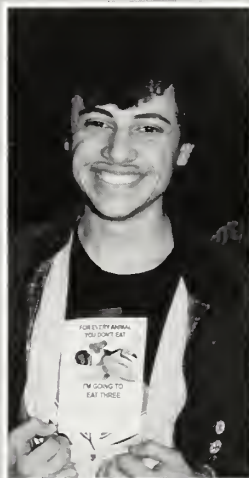

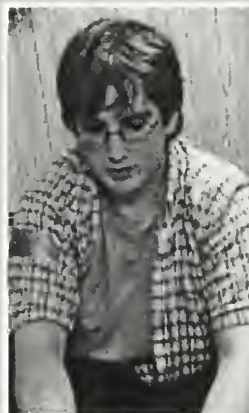

The students of MHS are all unique and extraordinary. The class of 2004 leads us with their motivation, intelligence, and talent. Four years ago, the seniors entered this school as freshman, and it was then that they began making their mark. It has been evident that the high school students have grown and matured into great role models for their underclassmen peers. With all that the class of 2004 has accomplished, they have successfully created many great memories of their high school experience, as well as raised the bar for those who will graduate in future years to come. This student life section will give you a look at our dynamic students and all that they have accomplished.

SENIOR WINTER BALL

The Senior Winter Ball was a great success! Held at the Colonial, members of the class of 2004 had a great time dancing the night away with friends!

AN EVENING OF MEMORIES

CLASS

OF '04

Middle Center: Jennifer Tolman with Nicole Pesce at her side quickly learn the lyrics to their next song.

Bottom Center: Pondering a thought, Nicholas Devita thinks this pizza night be the best one he's ever had.

ALL ABOARD . . .

IT'S A FEMALE FOOTBALL FRENZY!

Top right: Athletic Director Alice McGinnis gives the football team a pre game speech before gearing up and playing Wakefield.

HALLOWEEN 2003

Top Right: (Top to Bottom) M. Beckford and N. DeVita putting on a live performance in the cafeteria.

THINGS ARE CRAZY AT MHS.

Nobody believes in gorillas anymore . . .

Now we leave behind the world of high school, with its dusty dustless chalk, its dumb prombs and its EMO children. Out we go to face the horrors of the real world with nothing but basic trig and vocab we'll all forget. Nothing remains of youthful hope but the promise of a new sunrise each day, a second chance, and tacos, always tacos. Take advantage of what you have. Face the day. Peace out <3

Ben Johnson! Do not be swayed by what is around you. There is no wrong path that you can take. You must believe in yourself and move onward. If humans have infinite potential what is considered the height of human capability? Is there a limit to human ability? And if you take 1 from 365 what remains? 364 of course. Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away. Now it looks like they're here to stay. Oh, I believe in yesterday; Reach for the moon, and if you don't make it, you'll still be among the stars; Black to white and hot to cold; I'd rather be dancing: Time is a valuable thing, watch it fly by, the clock ticks life away, I tried so hard and got so far, but in the end it doesn't even matter; I'll miss everyone- you know who you are.

A Look Back Through The Years . . .

Like a good reporter, we get our information from a variety of sources. They are an extremely diverse group, yet the faculty of MHS are united by their dedication to educating us. Their patience, kindness, understanding, and helpfulness will never be forgotten. Over the past four years, they have instilled in us the knowledge and skills that will guide us to success throughout our lives.

At 2:11 the books were closed, and the sneakers and warm-ups were taken out. Class rivalries were put aside and students came together as athletes. From squats in the weight room to suicides on the court, students practiced until the sun set, and the stars were high in the sky. Athletes were fierce and focused at their competitions, and they never lost sight of the eye of the tiger. They represented Melrose at games by competing with pride and integrity. Beneath the grueling practices and the fierce competitions, unbreakable bonds of camaraderie were formed. Perhaps it was the awesome pasta parties, or the wild TP runs that forged the bonds of friendship. Or maybe it was the natural high one got from winning a meet together as a team, after two years of winless seasons. Whatever it was, athletes could all agree upon one thing. It was more than just the final record. Behind the record were all the memories and dreams it took to get that win. It wasn't about the destination; it was about the journey one took to get there.

The 2003 Melrose Red Raiders qualified for the state tournament with an impressive 14-9 record, for the first time since the 1999 team. Stumbling out of the gates to a 3-6 record, the resiliency showed, on their way to a 6 game win streak and a 9-2 record in the second half of the year including a victory over rival Wakefield. The Raiders then split an end of the season doubleheader with non-league opponent Malden. Setting the squad up for a meeting in the states at the home of the league opponent powerhouse Burlington red devils. Led by a strong pitching performance by Jon Casey and a run scoring hit by catcher Marc Crovo that put Melrose ahead for good, and the Raiders brought home a 3-1 victory to advance further into the state tournament. The next opponent was a very strong #2 seed Tewksbury. However the #19 seeded Melrose team stopped the Tewksbury offense with a 57 pitch performance handed in by Mike Gentile, and Brian Morrissey reaching base 4 times and scoring two of the runs for the raiders.

The 2004 season is filled with optimism for the Melrose boys. Having Jon Casey Tri-Captain Pitcher/Outfielder at the top of the rotation, leadoff and splendid play in centerfield by Tri-Captain Brian Morrissey, and Tri-Captain Marc Crovo in the leadership role defensively behind the plate. This trio have all been named all-league, their full pitching rotation returning this year, and building off of last seasons accomplishments the 2004 Melrose Red Raiders are elevated into the new season.

With another Spring season under their belt your Lady Red Raiders have yet again gave it our all the entire season. With plenty of support form our coaches Mrs. Murphy and Ms. Coughlin, and for all of their parents in attendance, our team pride is at its highest, especially for the season of 2004! For the graduating members of this year, this is our last chance to show Melrose what we are made of! The season would not be the same without Jackie Scully's stellar performances on the mound, or Dee Dill's clutch hits. Softball would not have officially started until Melissa MacPhee would trip and fall flat on her face. Three Cheer's go out to Alisha Edwards and Colleen Cusack who make the practices fun to be at. With Erin Hudd's 18 inning diving catch last year, we can only hope for the same from her. Suzi D'Mato gives her all throughout the season, and always has a positive attitude. Junior Kerry Dillon adds her high fives and a cheery smile into the winning goals of the Lady Red Raiders team.

The strength of the 2003 season, will definitely pass over into the 2004 season with newly appointed captains: Pitcher Jackie Scully and Second baseman Dee Dill. Lots of Luck to the Lady Red Raiders of the 2004 Spring Season. Go out and knock 'em down!

The boys' tennis team is coming off an awesome 2003 season, and looking forward to an even better one in 2004. Seniors Andrew Fried, Daniel Bearse, David Forrest, Harrison Osborne, Evan Silva and Jared Luxenberg are all strong contributors. Although the 2003 season was his first, Coach Jim Atkinson has already become an excellent leader and a major factor in the team's success. Although the guys fell just short of the tournament in 2003, the team is more than ready for another run at it in 2004!

The girl's tennis team has had four very successful years. With the help of our coach Deb Deacon, we have overcome obstacles, and pulled together as a team. Captains Alexandra Zedros, Jill Jacobs, and Leah Silverstone have carried the team through three tournaments. Seniors Catrina Barb and Lauren Picard have played important roles in the team's success as well. With the help from underclassmen Jess Porter and Liz Sheerin, the upcoming season is looking great! This year's varsity team will be a force to be reckoned with within the Middlesex League.

This past season was a building season for the Boy's Spring Track team. Coming off several struggling years, the team managed to finish with a 3-6 record with two very close losses. Several members of the team qualified to compete in the state meet, including Sean Driscoll, Captain Kyle Emery, Edward Hairston, Eugene Hill, Jwara Loftis, Duane Teixeira, and Anthony Teixeira. Led this next season by captains Dave Crespo, Sean Driscoll, and Anthony Teixeira, we hope to start where we left off and earn a respectable rank in the upper half of the league.

Girls Spring Track

The 2004 spring track team was led by Captains Erica Foulser, Abigail King, Amanda Lanza, and Melanie Larsen. Although we did not have any victories during the 2003 season, the accomplishments of the Melrose track team cannot be measured by just wins and losses. There were many individual achievements, some of which included State qualifiers Melanie Larsen, Sivan Vainer, and Beth Harlow. The team as a whole faced each meet with determination and enthusiasm. Despite the odds against them, they ran each meet just as hard as the next team, and they never gave up hope. The team will be graduating Alison Bliss, Denise Applegate, Lauren Finlay, Erica Foulser, Katie Hatfield, Martha Klemm, Abigail King, Amanda Lanza, Melanie Larsen, Colleen McDevitt, Jen Sateriale, Katie Travis, and Thanh Truong. With a strong and solid group of underclassmen, next year's spring track has potential for a successful season.

Strides, Stamina, And Success

This year's cross country team had its best record in years, a winning 5-4 season, beating Reading, Belmont, Burlington, Stoneham, and Wakefield. The second year at the new home course at Greenwood Park was a great success. A long summer of conditioning paid off and the returning runners all improved over last year's times. The team was led by Senior Jared Luxenberg and tri-captains Dave Crespo, Matt Seminerio, and Anthony Teixeira. The top runner was Junior Jon Savary. The three senior captains were consistent scorers, with Nick MacDonald, Matt Barbati, Pat Tagan, and Dong Truong rounding off the rest of the varsity team.

Preparation for the 2003 cross-country season began just after school was let out for the summer. Captains' practice was led by Erica Foulser, Abigail King, and Amanda Lanza, and despite the unbearably hot weather, and freak rain showers, the girls practiced five days a week throughout the whole summer. From breakfast runs, to playing football and basketball, the cross-country girls did it all. They opened up their season with an easy victory against Reading. In addition, they beat Woburn, Watertown, and Burlington and finished with a 4-5 record. Amanda Lanza was named League All-Star. Top seven runners, Erica Foulser, Betsy and Katie Johnson, Abigail King, Amanda Lanza, Thanh Truong, and Peggy O'Donnell went to compete in the Eastern Massachusetts state meet at Franklin Park. The team had several returning runners including, Sarah Donovan, Anne Fabricant, Erica Foulser, Betsy Johnson, Abigail King, Amanda Lanza, Melanie Larsen, Kelly Murphy, Maddie Pawlina, Melissa Ricker, and Thanh Truong. In addition to the veterans, several new runners including, Delaney Bannister, Allison Fink, Katie Johnson, Peggy O'Donnell, and Xuan Truong added depth and strength to the cross-country team. Although the team will be graduating many seniors, the cross-country team is still very strong, and shows promise for a successful season next year.

LAPS AROUND THE COMPETITION

Melrose High School's girls swim team had a fabulous season. The team worked extremely hard this year. There were 10 seniors on the team and with their hard work and dedication, we finished our season with the most wins we have ever had. The captains: Alison Cairns, Abby Pratt, Jackie Scully, and Christine Sullivan did a great job leading the team. Marjorie Whalen, Jillian Lawson, Kate Travis, Paula Singer, Colleen McDevitt are all the seniors. What made the year unusual was the large number of freshmen who joined the team. The freshmen brought a great deal of spirit to our team and united us! We enjoyed swimming with all participants. Thanks for a great season!

CHICKS WITH STICKS!

The 2003 Melrose Red Raiders ended with a record of 5-9-4. The team was strongly led by co-captains Jessica Grabiec and Alisha Edwards and head coach Amy Pascarell. Other seniors on the team included, Jackie Aversa, Katharine Belmonte, Sarah Brickley, Barbara Hazard, and Heather Kersey. League All-Stars Alisha Edwards and Megan Shea also powered the Raiders. The team had a slow start because of the many open positions left by last years graduating players. It was a new team and most of the players had not been on the field together before. However, they quickly redeemed themselves by coming together and working hard. They were able to find their confidence after tying the undefeated team of Watertown. Although Melrose did not make the tournament they proved what they were capable of and had fun doing it. In such a short time the girls were lucky enough to have had such a tight bond that made for an unforgettable season.

The 2003-2004 Melrose Hockey team turned things around after a two-year absence from post-season play. They were led by captains Matt Antolini and Mike Kozlowski, along with seniors Mike Carlson, Ben Rotundo, Scott Riordan, and Matt Shea. There were several memorable games such as the wins against Belmont, Winchester, Wakefield, and Reading, who Melrose had not beaten in over 15 years. The team was backed by a solid bunch of superfans, including Brian Morrissey, Phil Muolo, Mike Blotner, Bobby Forsey, Ricky Mead, and the cheerleaders. The team had six All Stars who were Matt Antolini, Mike Kozlowski, Ben Rotundo, Nick Wells, Chris Charlton, and Nick Lento. Next year, the team will be built on a core of notable juniors, such as Brendan Cosgrove, Cam Murphy, Alfred Porcaro, and Brian Colborne. The seniors would like to thank the underclassmen for all of the memories.

Ray Deveraux and Ben Joslin settle another challenge on the practice green.

2003 TRI-LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

The 2003 Melrose High School Golf team had a fantastic season. Led by Captain, Rob O'Koniewski and fellow seniors, Matt Shea, Matt Antolini, and Rob Viola. The leadership and hard work of the seniors led a Tri-League Championship title with an 8-1 record. The team had one loss to Lexington and eight commanding wins over the rest of the Middlesex League. The top six, Rob O'Koniewski, Dave Murphy, Matt Shea, George Brickley, Ben Joslin, and Jeff Viola led to a second place finish in Division II sectionals and a fourth place final in Division II. In recent years underclassmen have stepped up for the graduating seniors. The 2004 Golf season should be just as successful as the last five seasons.

Top Left: Playing as #1 on the team, Capt. Rob O'Koniewski never thinks of laying up as he has this chip for an eagle. Middle Left: "Just another 300 yard pop" thinks George Brickley as he busts out the driver before a match. Bottom Left: Matt Antolini shows his championship form as he holes out from beside the green. Left: "No photos please," asks Matt Shea as he tries to get focused for the upcoming match.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME

The 2003 season was a learning experience for the varsity boy's soccer team. With the loss of nine starters coach Dean Serino called upon underclassmen to fill the gaps. Tragedy struck the team as senior captain Mike Biniari went down with a season ending injury before he had the chance to play a single game. This left the responsibilities of leading the team solely on the shoulders of senior captain Harry Solie.

As the season went on the boys started to come together as a team. Despite the hardships suffered by the team throughout the season, good senior leadership brought the team together and kept them close. The 2003 season can be looked upon as a success, not for the team's record, but for the way the team handled themselves in the face of tremendous adversity.

2004 co-captains Alex Altonaga, and league all-star Jeff Hurd led the way next fall. They hope to rebuild the dynasty of Red Raider soccer. With the loss of ten seniors they will work with a young group of kids who hold a lot of potential. To all of the players and coaches from the departing seniors, "Only those who can see the invisible can do the impossible."

This season, the girl's soccer team had to start once again with a new coach. We worked the hardest we have ever worked in preparation for the season. Our determination paid off as it improved our record. A very memorable moment for our team was our strong win against Burlington, whom we had not beaten in over 8 years of Lady Raider's soccer. One of the most amazing things about our team is the way the girls came together despite the challenges we faced. If it weren't for the unity of our team, we wouldn't have made it through our season as successfully.

The 2004 season for the boys' swim team was one of the best the school has seen. With a winning record and a growing team, things look good for next year. The Melrose 200 free relay team (Zack Ahrens, Greg Webster, Kevin Whalen, and Dan Broadley) made it to states. Dan Broadley also came in second place in the state for the 100 backstroke. Greg Webster and Zack Ahrens both competed and placed as well in the 50 freestyle. Overall, it was a very successful year and a lot of fun! The senior boys would like to wish the underclassmen on the team the best of luck in the future!

BALANCING HARD WORK AND FUN TO DOMINATE THE LEAGUE!

Coaches Denise Valdez and David Montani, along with the help of captains Allison Cairns and Sarah Killen, led the girls 2003-2004 gymnastics team into a successful season. The team started their season off with a successful two-point victory over archrival Woburn. At the end of the season, the team had a successful 4-2 record and tied Woburn for second place in the league. Junior Liza Montani led the team in all around competition, and represented the team at States. Allison Cairns also represented the team at States for her floor routine. The team would like to thank the coaches for a great season and also wishes the best of luck to their seniors, Allison Cairns, Jillian Lawson, and Sarah Killen.

RED RAIDERS BASKETBALL

The 2003-2004 season for Coach Robert Hamilton and squad started strong with two big wins. The returning core of four seniors and the addition of another, brought much chemistry to the court for the varsity squad. Captain Matt Seminerio was a consistent starter and was named a Middlesex League All-Star. Andrew Hirschfeld contributed strong defense along with solid post play. Andre Mills was a high scorer and leading rebounder throughout the season. Point guard Scott MacKenzie led the team's offense, while first year varsity player Aidan O'Kennedy was a tough defender. Underclassmen Luke Cerretani, Pete Pezzano and Tyler Flaherty were all huge assets to the teams' victories. The season ended with a 6-14 record.

MIDDLESEX LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

The 2003-2004 girls basketball team had yet another successful season. Senior co-captains Erin Hudd and Marianne Foley led the pack of this years Lady Raiders. The team once again continued onto post season for the eighth year in a row. The Lady Raiders came out of the regular season with a solid 18-2 record, putting them on top of the Middlesex League. In tournament play, Melrose dominated first round opponent Winchester and then put away Lincoln-Sudbury in the quarterfinals before losing to Arlington Catholic in the North semifinals. The Lady Raiders finished their season with an overall record of 20-3. Senior Marianne Foley and Freshman Shey Peddy were named as Middlesex All-League players, while Senior Erin Hudd was named as an All-Star. Seniors Hannah Berg and Larissa Jessup worked hard and contributed on the floor in every game, while Senior Jamie Pearson helped out with her great spark from the bench. Underclassmen Christina Scarlatos, Andrea Campbell, Cara Lynch, Samantha Bell, Emily Erb, Liz Lahiff, Shey Peddy, Paula and Karen Sen, were all key factors to the success of the squad.

This year started off with a bang with the fall production of Neil Simon's California Suite. With loads of talent and vivacious energy California Suite was a smash hit! Under the superb direction of Miss Tanja Hiti the play garnered rave reviews. Next, the Drama Club began the odyssey that is the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Festival. All have high hopes for the success of this years play, A Young Lady of Property. Finals anyone? Good luck! And remember, you can catch all your favorite drama club members on Law & Order. Thanks for a great year!!

Three quarters of the school is made up of underclassmen. Without the underclassman, who would we be? We, as seniors hope that we leave big shoes to fill. The freshman even though they have only been here for one year, will hopefully take care of the school when they are in the position that we are right now. We hope that the underclassmen can carry on the legacy of being seniors for years and years to come.

The advertisements from the businesses, families, and friends are what help make the Melrose High School yearbook possible. Thanks to the generosity and enthusiasm from all of the ads we recieved, the yearbook staff was able to create another great yearbook! We would like to extend our gratitude to all those who participated in the ads which helped the Log staff make a book to hold our high school memories for years to come.

CONGRATULATIONS

Remember, always be a leader and not a follower, not everyone you follow is on the right track.

You only live once, and if you do it right, once is enough.

Success comes with hard work!

When the praises go up, the blessings come down.

A special thanks to the following families who opened their homes to our sons throughout the years so graciously and cared for them during our absence.

You've come a long way baby, to get where you are today.
The roads ahead are yours, follow them wherever you want to go.
We love you,
Mom, Dad, Elaina, Evan, Yia Yia (in awhile crocodile) and Lily.

Danielle,
You have shown such courage and integrity in the face of adversity. No matter where you go, or what you do, I will always be proud to stand by you.
Love,
Mom

Your family wants to say how proud we are of you. From running the bases in the backyard, to Incarnation T-ball. From Pop Warner D & throwing passes with Dad all the way up to MHS Captain of Football & Baseball. You're a real team player & multi-talented athlete. You never give up no matter what. (Stuart Little, Santa's dead, Galapagos, Playstation's wet again, Big Red). LOVE ALWAYS, MD DT MW SK

Scott,
 Congratulations! We are so very proud of you and all your accomplishments.

Congratulations to the last "ANTO" to graduate from MHS. We hope your college experience is all you dreamed it would be. The best is yet to come!
 Luke and Mike

Chris,
 To succeed . . .
 you need to find something to hold on to, something to motivate you, something to inspire you.
 Love,
